County Wins Three Suits

Powell county was winner in three suits before Judge Shadeford in Circuit court Tuesday.

One of the suits was brought by a lady stenographer, who took the evidence in a murder case transferred to this county from Breathitt. This case lost because certain records failed to substantiate the proof.

The Alfred Rose case was lost on demurrer, as was also the N. S. McDonald case.

County Attorney Marion Atkinson was assisted in these cases by Judge Benton.

The Estill county case brought by Jas. A. Wallace, Treasurer of the county, was passed until the March term of court 1920.

Death of Mrs. Leach

Mrs. Anna Leach, aged 36, wife of George B. Leach, died in this city Monday from the flu and cancer. Burial Wednesday at the local cemetery.

Mrs. Leach has been a sufferer from cancer for several months, but her condition was not regarded serious until but a few days before her death.

Before marriage Mrs. Leach was a Miss Ringo, sister to John P. Ringo of this city. She is survived by three children besides her husband.

Teacher Resigns

Miss Wates, one of the teachers in the city school, has resigned her position on the account of poor health and returned to her home at Cynthiana. The position will be supplied by Mrs. G. Hackworth until after the closing of the Waltersville consolidated school when Mrs. Myrtle Burgher, one of the teachers in that school will take the place. This will be about Christmas.

Is Your Dog Licensed

County Clerk, I. S. Boone, is advertising the list of licensed dog owners in Powell county this week as per the requirements of the law. Owing to crowded space we are unable to publish them all this week so they will be continued next week. Look the list over and see if your neighbor is dodging the tax on his dog.

Clark County Real Estate

Mr. Geo. E. Motch, leading real estate and insurance agent of Winchester, has given The Times an order for a nice advertising space. Remember Mr. Motch as one of our friends when you wish to buy or sell real estate in our neighboring county of Clark, or take out insurance.

Borders Gives Right of Way

H. L. Borders gave the right of way for the new road and work will proceed at once. Of course it has never been necessary for the road work to stop since there is plenty work for the contractors back this way.

Buys Stock of Groceries

Geo. S. Ware has purchased the grocery store of John Maxwell and will continue the business at the same place.

The "Kyva" Highway

The State Road Department is taking considerable interest in the proposed "Kyva" (Kentucky-Virginia) Highway, and will put forth every effort toward raising funds, in way of State and Federal aid bond issues etc., for its construction.

Starting at Winchester, going out over the "Iron Works" pike, thence through Stanton, Campbellton, Jackson, Hazard and Whitesburg to Big Stone Gap, Va.

Some of the counties along the route have already voted bond issues and others have the matter under consideration with good prospects of success.

The Virginia people are ready to meet Kentucky with a first-class road and probably are willing to "deaden over the line" to some extent.

W. G. Coutts, one of Big Stone Gap's live wires and good roads enthusiast is on the job.

Vast benefits would accrue to Winchester and Central Kentucky from the establishment of the "Kyva Highway."—Winchester Democrat.

Another Tide

Heavy rains falling Tuesday, Tuesday night and Wednesday have swollen Red river until it is as large as the tide the first of the month. It is a very rare thing to have a tide in November. Two large tides in this month is doubly rare. This tide can do but little damage to crops since the first one did all the damage that can be done. Corn that was under water in the last tide and shucked and cribbed has not yet dried out and it looks that it will all sour and spoil before it can be dried. The loss to farmers is exceedingly great.

The Huntsman's Envy

'Squire Wm. Townsend came down from Filson Saturday to interview some of his old friends and, of course, saw the editor to whom he reported that while on his trip to Wisconsin this summer he frequently saw deer and helped to skin one. His son, J. C. Townsend, a former resident of Clay City, has killed three deer since his father, the 'Squire, left Wisconsin a few weeks ago.

Unique Distinction

Elder L. F. Martin has the unique distinction of having baptized his father, having baptized a Mr. Hobbs, in Lee county, 84 years old, and having married a couple, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Daniel, who were the same age to a day, both being twenty-one.

Death on Snakes

J. H. Cooper, of Bowen, was here Saturday and reports having done his part this summer toward exterminating snakes, having killed nine rattle snakes, four copper heads and two black snakes.

Injured by Fall

Oscar Staples fell and sustained a very painful injury to his side Friday while helping tear down an old house for W. F. Barnett.

The Entertainment

The first of the series of four Redpath entertainments to be held in Clay City this season was held at the school house Monday night. A full house welcomed the entertainers, who rendered a much enjoyed program. The St. Claire Sisters proved to be no disappointment to the audience, which will look forward to the remaining monthly entertainments with anxiety.

Land Sale Postponed

The J. H. Thomson land sale advertised in these columns last week for yesterday was postponed on account of it being such a rainy and bad day. The sale will be held at the front of the Winchester court house door, Saturday, December 6th at 1:30 p. m. Read description of the farm in Times and if you are thinking of buying Bluegrass land, investigate this prospect.

Train Service Decreased

The passenger service has been greatly crippled on the L. & N. to Beattyville from Winchester via Irvine. All trains have been discontinued on the branch except the noon trains each way. The service of the L. & N. to Clay City remains the same as formerly. The suspension of this train service is only temporary and is inaugurated to relieve the coal situation.

Temporary Relief.

The distribution of three cars of coal in Clay City this week has brought temporary relief to our people. George S. Ware, Brodhead-Garrett Co. and Joe Mountz have each unloaded a car here this week. The Company has another car on the siding to unload if its release can be secured.

Courier Gets Here Early

The Louisville Courier-Journal now reaches here the morning of publication and is sold by Wm. Mountz. This will be glad news to the many fond readers of the grand old Courier. The fact that it could not reach here on the mornings of publication is responsible for the large circulation of some other papers that could reach us.

Wants Stronger Packing

The express carriers have ruled that no paper packages exceeding 25 pounds in weight will be accepted for shipping after December 10. Express weighing more than 25 pounds must be in approved cartons or boxed in wood.

Child Dies From Diphtheria

Katherine, the little 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McColun, oil people living in the western portion of the city, died from diphtheria Tuesday and was buried in the local cemetery.

Moves to West Virginia

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Reynolds have gone to Curten, W. Va., to spend the winter with a son who lives there.

Remains of Mrs. Kirk

Interred Saturday

The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Kirk, wife of T. J. Kirk, whose death occurred last Thursday as briefly noted in these columns was laid to rest Saturday in the local cemetery.

Besides the bereaved husband, three sons—John, P. B. and George Kirk remain—one grandchild, little Miss Julia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kirk, also survives.

Mrs. Kirk was sixty-five years old, a faithful companion and a loving mother.

Personal Paragraphs

Luther James, of Filson, was here Saturday and attended the Baker sale.

Mrs. John Smethers, of Lexington, is visiting the family of Jas. Smethers near here.

Isaac S. Sparks, of Winchester, visited his daughter, Mrs. Jas. G. Fugate, at Waltersville last week.

J. H. Dawson, the Winchester Roller Mill's traveler, was here Friday interviewing our merchants.

Elder and Mrs. D. H. Matherly, of Richmond, came over Monday for a visit to old friends in the city.

Mrs. Ray McKinney continues to suffer very much from the hand she ran a needle into some time ago.

Jas. G. Fugate, of Waltersville, went to Beattyville last week to attend Circuit court now in session there.

Clin Bowman, of London, Ky., a former citizen of Clay City, was here Tuesday selling acetylene light plants.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bowman are receiving congratulations over the birth of a new son, Thursday, Nov. 20.

Mr. W. R. Eubank and family, of Winchester, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Eubank's parents, Judge and Mrs. W. T. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Colson Blackburn, of Lexington, are spending a few days with Mrs. Blackburn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Shimpfessell.

Mrs. Ann Barnett returned Monday to her home in Clark county after an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. King, and son, W. F. Barnett.

Clarence Flynn, of Pilot is visiting Jas. G. Fugate at Waltersville this week. While here Mr. Fugate employed him to work on the farm the balance of the fall and winter.

J. W. Barnett, and two little daughters, Misses Lillie and May, of Butler, Mo., arrived here Tuesday morning for an extended visit to relatives in Powell and Estill counties.

Mrs. Sarah F. Thacker, of Pilot, has moved to her new home which she purchased from Columbus Begle near Waltersville last May. We extend the hand of welcome to Mrs. Thacker.

VAUGHN'S MILL.

County Agent H. H. Harrison, of Stanton, was here Saturday.

Walter Curtis purchased Monday from S. A. Easter a good milk cow for $50.00.

G. W. Clark had a splendid milk cow to die one day last week from eating green wheat.

H. M. Curtis and family will move back from the oil fields to their old homestead about December 3rd.

George Dunaway moved Sunday to the S. G. Baker farm, which he and Ed Bush have rented for next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larison, Mr. and Mrs. Cordis Larison and Mrs. S. V. Larison, from Clay City, attended church services here Sunday.

Those attending the S. G. Baker sale from Clark county were: Robt. Henry and wife, Everett Herry, Ray Burgher and wife and daughter.

We believe Mrs. George Dunaway wears the blue ribbon in this vicinity for raising turkeys by producing $125.19 worth of fowls for the Thanksgiving market.

We quote the following markets now prevailing here: Corn starting at $8.00 per bbl.; Irish potatoes, $2.00 per bushel; cabbage, 4 to 5 cents per pound; stock hogs, 11 cents pound; beef cattle, 8 cents per pound; best flour, Perfection, $6.20 per cwt.; eggs, 55 cents per dozen; butter 50 cents per pound.

The S. G. Baker sale was attended Saturday by a large crowd and most of the stuff offered brought a good price. Some of the stock offered brought a fair price, while others were slow and dull and were taken down, the price being rejected. Ten bbls. of picked corn and ten bbls. of field run were sold for $7.00 and $5.00 after which it was taken down to be sold privately. Here are some of the stock prices: one good saddle horse, 4 years old, $178; one 5 year old work horse, $70; one aged mare, $50; sow and 4 pigs, $23; sow and 4 pigs, $22; sow and 5 pigs $9; sow and 6 pigs $19.50; one sow, wt. about 100 lbs., $14; two 2 year old steers $51 and $41; one yearling bull $39; two springer heifers $36.50 and $38; one heifer calf $35.50; one bull calf $23.50. Timothy hay brought $1.50 per bale; cane 90 cents per shock. A 2-horse wagon fetched $33. G. W. Clark cried the auction and most of the day was consumed in selling the articles. Dillard Estes served as clerk and Clarence Estes treasurer.

Will The Influenza Return?

Public Health Authorities Predict its Recurrence

Guard Against it by Building Up the Blood

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich Red Blood and Increases Strength

Surgeon General Blue, of the United States Public Health Service, in a recent statement from Washington, warns the public that the much-dreaded influenza epidemic will probably return this fall and winter. All medical authorities agree that the weak, bloodless, rundown individual is more likely to contract this (as well as any other infectious disease) than is the strong, robust, red-blooded man or woman. In view of these facts, it is wise to use every effort to build up the blood and thus increase the bodily resistance to the invasion of the germs of the disease. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolute dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak, and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.
